

BLACKSTONE FIVE HERE FOR GAME

Southside Bowlers Anxious for Scalp of Times-Dispatch
Aggregation.

Battling valiantly, The Times-Dispatch team went down in defeat before the strong five of the American Locomotive Company last night in the match games of the Richmond Bowling Association played on the Newport Bowling Alley. Despite the consistent work of Whitman and Bailey, of the newspaper team, the bowlers walked away with the series.

Whitman carried off honors both for high individual score and for high total, getting in the former instance 234 pins and in the latter 573. Kennedy was second in individual score, with 214, and O'Brien third, with 212. Hard luck characterized the work of the ink-slingers throughout all three games. The rolling was consistent, but the breaks all went in favor of the Locomotive Company.

To-night The Times-Dispatch team made the strong aggregation from Blackstone. The match promises to be interesting, and will be fought from start to finish. While several of the Times-Dispatch team are crippled, the subs will be out to take the place of the regulars.

On to-morrow night the Plumbers and Engravers get together, and as both teams have been practicing regularly and much improvement is shown, the contest should be warm and the winner is hard to pick.

Following is the score of last night's games and the standing of the clubs:

SKYMEN WILL SEE FOOTBALL GAME

The management of the University of Virginia-Carolina football game has invited the aviators now performing at the Fair Grounds to attend the game this afternoon at Broad Street Park in automobiles. This courtesy was extended because of the action taken by the aviators in changing the time for the flights from afternoon until morning.

It was realized that the football game might attract many who might have attended the aviation meet, and it was likewise realized that the aviation meet might keep many from the football game.

In order to please both those who wanted to see the football game and the aviation meet, the time for the skyman to perform was changed from 2 o'clock in the afternoon to 11 o'clock in the morning. The exchange of courtesies followed. Those attending the game will now be afforded the opportunity of seeing the aviators without their war tags.

ARTILLERYMEN ARE TOO HEAVY

Coast Team Wins from First Regiment by Narrow Margin of One Touchdown.

Even though President Taft failed to visit the ball park yesterday afternoon to witness the game between the First Virginia Regiment and the eleven from the Artillery School at Fortress Monroe, those who did go enjoyed some good sport. The regulars won, but by the very small score of 5 to 0, crossing the regimental goal line but once and then failing to kick goal.

Taking into consideration the fact that the fort warriors outweighed the local aggregation more than fifteen pounds to the man, the regimentals put up a remarkable defensive game. It was surprising the way in which the light line of the local team held up. Time and again the artillerymen were held for downs, and there were moments when the regiment played rings around their heavier opponents.

Neither team was able to score during the first two quarters. The visitors won the toss and defended the west goal. From the kickoff until the quarter ended the ball was practically in midfield, neither team being able to make appreciable gains and resorting to kicking tactics, in which department the regiment had the better of the argument. The first quarter ended with the visitors' thirty-three-yard line in the home guards' possession. It was third down and seven yards to go.

Score in Third Quarter.
The second quarter opened when the regiment kicked twenty-five yards. The play during this quarter was largely in the regiment's territory, though the team held well and made an excellent showing.

It was in the third quarter that the only score of the game was made. By a succession of line plunges, with May carrying the ball, the regulars had the oval on the regiment's four-yard line. Two tries failed to carry the ball over, but on the third down, back Vermulen found an opening through left tackle, and the ball was over. He failed to kick goal, and the score was 5 to 0 in favor of the team from the fort.

In the last quarter the regiment braced and by a series of well-cut forward passes carried the ball down the field to their opponents' eighteen-yard line. One forward pass too many was attempted, the last being caught by Homellous, who ran sixty-five yards before being stopped by MacFarland.

The game ended with the ball on the regiment's forty-five-yard line in possession of the visitors.

Buzze, MacFarland and Parsons carried off the honors for the regiment, while Culbertson, Zimmerman, Vermullen, Hale and May were the heavyweights who carried the ball for the visitors. It was an old-fashioned game, with everything being done by the ball but the center and guards. Following is the line-up and summary:

Line-Up of Teams.
First Regiment, Position, Artillerymen.
Parsons..... left end..... Kennedy
Gregory..... left tackle..... Hale
Kearney..... left guard..... Or Seay..... center..... Owens
Deoppe..... right guard..... Caldwell
Guy..... right tackle..... May
Ayer West..... right end..... Green
MacFarland..... quarter..... Vermullen
Herbert..... left half..... Homellous
Van Pelt..... right half..... Zimmerman
Buzze..... full back..... Culbertson

Summary. Touchdown—Vermullen. Score, 5 to 0. First Regiment, 0. Officials—Taylor (W. and M.), referee; Calfee (H. of Va.), umpire; Bain (V. P. I.), linesman. Time of quarters, 10 minutes.

No Extra Session.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, November 23.—Coincident with the President's return it was learned that there is not the slightest chance for an extra session of Congress following the coming short session. The President, it is said, sees no need for calling Congress to sit after March 4.

Shafts From Sportland

By G. MALBERT

You fought a good fight fellows, so don't feel badly just because the best of the Artillery crowd got the best of you. And President Taft came out—not.

Vermullen played a good game for the fort team, and had the honor of carrying the ball over for the only touchdown of the game. He made a mistake, though, in not running May off-center. The big tackle walked right through the light line of the Regiment and got six and seven yards each time.

Parsons knows how to play end, and that's all there is to it. The way he made those few men cower, him, VanPelt also shines in the back field.

Take it all in all, the Regiment has a good football team and made a most excellent showing. Defeat under the conditions at Broad Street Park yesterday was anything but a disgrace. And the boys came mighty near scoring in the last quarter. Just a little poor judgment in placing that last forward pass is all that kept them from tying up the game.

Must say a word of praise in behalf of Zimmerman, the stocky half on the Artillery team. He played a great game. Also he is noted, he will be a student at Randolph-Macon next year. Vermullen has signed with the Norfolk team to play baseball in the Virginia League in 1911.

Now is the time to pick the winner. I feel, because I'm afraid of being wrong. But it looks like a toss up. If I were a betting man, which I am not, I would toss a coin and guess which team to bet on. I wouldn't bet at all. That's a mighty good principle under any circumstances. Virginia has a good team. Carolina has a good team. Where you are, Virginia claims the victory. Carolina claims the victory. There you are again. Now, on the level, if you were in my place would you try to pick a winner?

But the crowd will be out. It looks like the largest football crowd in years. Enthusiasm is at fever heat. Carolina will bring the entire student body, and so will Virginia. Add to this considerable number the alumni of both schools in Richmond, plus the people who go just for the spectacular of the event and to be in the swim, and you can get a fair line on the crowd.

But the whole in last year's drought, and after match extant that Pennsylvania will beat Cornell. Also give you a little gamble that West Point trumps the Saliers. Just one man's opinion, however.

Aeroplane start flying at 11 o'clock. Flash by 1. Allowing one hour for dinner or lunch, depending upon your station in life, you can be back on the field of war in time to see the teams arrive and hear the cheers.

If ever a town was football mad, Richmond is that place. You can't take a step without running into a fan who wants to get your opinion as to who will win. The funny part of it is that it doesn't make any difference what team you pick the man will remain at that. As soon as the Carolinians put in appearance there will be enough Blue and White money to make Carolina the favorite. This, what is called patriotism across the line, maybe it is.

Hear a man bet 100 iron men against 50 cake buyers that I, P., would beat N. C. Carolina. A. and M. at Norfolk to-day. I am for V. P. I., and I think the Blackburg team has a chance to win. But if it is a toss up to one bet, then yours truly has lost his bearings and the football compass is sadly astray.

If Abe Attell is a real fighter his fortune is made. He is scheduled to fight Pat Moore at the Palace Club on Nov. 23. Now even is the best bet, and until the boys from "down home" arrive the betting will remain at that. As soon as the Carolinians put in appearance there will be enough Blue and White money to make Carolina the favorite. This, what is called patriotism across the line, maybe it is.

Annapolis reports that the Middlees are suffering from the "tummy ache," and the special adds that it looks like a case of poisoning. More like indigestion on the part of the chef preparing the food for the training table. May be that the Annapolis crowd wants to raise the hopes of the Soldiers.

And after Thanksgiving what will we poor scribbles do? Always a chance to stir up something in the baseball line, so cheer up.

TEAM IN FINE SHAPE FOR CRUCIAL CONTEST

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., November 23.—Coach Warren is working the Randolph-Macon football squad along exactly the same lines that he pursued during the week before the Hampden-Sidney game. He has evolved a new style of play for this game and is going to make use of every mite of ability in every man he sends into the game. The team is all-in-shape-top shape, except Captain Rowe, who has an attack of yellow jacket camp. The only answer to "How is the game going to be?" is "I don't know. If it's possible we'll win." Hour scrimmages were held both yesterday and to-day. Another will be undergone to-morrow morning.

The progress of the eleven this year has been a most erratic one. The first game was against the University of Virginia, and there the Yellow Jackets did themselves proud, holding the varsity down to a score up to within the last five minutes of play. The final count was 17 to 9. Then came the exhibition game with Richmond College, when the squad showed absolutely no form at all in any department of the game, and were beaten, 5 to 0. Fredericksburg College was then defeated, 6 to 0, and Johns Hopkins, the team again showed an off-day, and were snowed under, 26 to 0, in a game full of rotten decisions of officials on both sides. The next game was with University College of Medicine, and this was lost, 8 to 2. Neither Captain Rowe nor the aggressive little center, Woodhouse, was in that game. The next week saw the players settle down to business, and the student body got together behind them as one man. As a result of this hard work William and Mary fell an easy victim, 11 to 2. Then came the hardest week of the season, and at the end of it a hard-fought victory over Hampden-Sidney, 10 to 3, which placed Randolph-Macon directly in the championship line. The question now is "Is Saturday's game to be fought as was the one against Hampden-Sidney?" At any rate Richmond will see a hard game on next Saturday. To the Yellow Jackets it means the cup.

The team averages up 153 pounds,

and in age twenty years. The men are as follows:

Simpson, L. E.	Age	Wt.	Height
Copley, L. T.	20	155	5 ft. 10 in.
Chapman, L. G.	24	180	5 ft. 11 in.
Woodhouse, C.	21	160	5 ft. 9 in.
Jordan, R. G.	22	155	5 ft. 10 in.
Turner, R. T.	20	195	6 ft. 1 in.
R. B. Bane, R. E.	19	145	5 ft. 11 in.
F. Bane, Q. B.	17	135	5 ft. 10 in.
White, L. H. B.	20	135	5 ft. 9 in.
Hopkins, P. B.	19	160	5 ft. 11 in.
Rowe, R. H. B.	19	162	5 ft. 11 in.
(Captain)
Wray, F. B.	19	150	5 ft. 11 in.
F. B. Whodhouse, G.	18	164	6 ft.
Dyerle, G.	22	170	6 ft.
Fisher, Q. B.	20	155	5 ft. 10 in.

As time progresses and the day for the game draws near and the students begin to realize that they are to be deprived of the greatest pleasure of the college year, the feeling on the campus and in town grows more and more critical of the faculty's stand. In fact, intensely adverse criticism is coming in from all parts of the State.

The situation is causing much ill-feeling between students and professors. It is hard to say what will be the final effect of their action on the college.

RUEF LOSES CASE

Sentenced to Fourteen Years, He Is Debarred a New Trial.
San Francisco, Cal., November 23.—The District Court of Appeals of the First District sustained to-day the conviction of Abraham Ruef, former political boss of this city, charged with having bribed supervisors. The court denied him a new trial. The decision is contained in forty-six pages written by Presiding Judge Cooper, and affirms the lower court on all points. Ruef had been sentenced to fourteen years' imprisonment and was at liberty on bail.

Telegrams and Cablegrams May be Sent by Telephone

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

THE TELEPHONE AGAIN SUPPLEMENTS THE TELEGRAPH.

At night, on Sundays, or on holidays, when your local Western Union office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, you may send a telegram or cablegram to any part of the world, even to ships at sea, by forwarding it by Long Distance Bell Telephone to the nearest "all night" telegraph office, and by paying the usual telephone toll charge.

To do this simply call "Telegram." The operator will connect you with "Long Distance," who will give you the telephone charge. If you are a Bell telephone subscriber the cost of both the telegraph and telephone messages may be charged to you, or to the addressee.

Telegrams addressed to you will be read to you over the Long Distance telephone by the Western Union Company when your local telegraph office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, if you will pay the telephone toll from the nearest all night telegraph office.

This charge will be small, since a number of additional "all night" telegraph offices have been opened to care for this service.

The telephone company, however, undertakes only to place the subscriber in communication with the telegraph office—it assumes no responsibility for errors in transmission.

TO TRANSMIT TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE SAY "TELEGRAM."
